Principal of Children of St. Martha School Announced

Holy Spirit Catholic School Division is pleased to announce that Mrs. Janet Clamp has accepted the role of Principal for Children of St. Martha School in Lethbridge, effective this coming 2023/2024 school year.

Mrs. Clamp attained joint Bachelor's Degrees in Education and Management in 2004 from the University of Lethbridge. She went on to complete her Masters of Education in Educational Leadership from the University of Lethbridge 2019.

An educator since 2005, Janet began her career with Holy Spirit Catholic School Division. She has taught a variety of grades and subjects to students at St. Mary School in Taber, St. Catherine School in Picture Butte, and École St. Mary in Lethbridge. In 2019, she accepted the role of Associate Principal at Children of St. Martha School.

"I have no doubt that the community of Children St. Martha School will continue to be well-served by Mrs. Clamp," states Superintendent Ken Sampson. "Janet is a strong educator and a committed Catholic leader who will advocate tirelessly for her staff and students."

"I am passionate about communities and I am honoured for the opportunity to lead the strong, vibrant community that is The Children of St. Martha School," notes Clamp. "All are welcome at the Children of St. Martha and I look forward to working with families and walking with them to care for their children on their educational journey. It will be a blessing to work alongside a strong teaching staff as we continue nurturing the whole child, supporting Catholic education, academic growth and celebrating the success of each student."

Janet is an active participant in her faith and a member of the All Saints Parish community in Lethbridge. She and her husband, Paul, are the proud parents of three children.
